

GOAL 2 - Access to appropriate transition planning across the lifespan

PRIORITIES	ACTIVITIES	TIMESCALES	RESPONSIBILITY	OUTCOMES	PROGRESS	DATE
1. IMPROVE ACCESS TO APPROPRIATE TRANSITION PLANNING	Transitions event and roadshows to raise awareness of the Association for Real Change (ARC) principles of good transitions guides	Summer 2014	Autism Network Scotland	Transition practice for people with autism is seamless and in line with the principles of good transition practice; Good opportunity for exchanging knowledge, sharing good practice and considering the transitions good practice guides
2. BUILD CAPACITY IN TRANSITIONS AMONGST PROFESSIONS AND PRACTITIONERS	(i) Dissemination of ARC's Principles of Good Transitions 2 Guide	Ongoing	(i) ARC, Autism Network Scotland	Autism professionals and practitioners are more highly skilled in dealing with transitions to the benefit of people with ASD
	(ii) Engage with ARC's national transitions forum	Ongoing	(ii) Working Group, (iii) Autism Coordination Team (iv) Scottish Government	Professional autism capacity is raised and the principles of good transition practice are embedded within services

(iii) Engage with autism services eg NHS/Social Work/Education etc to disseminate good practice and support them to develop individual pathways for individuals for the whole life journey

(iv) Engage with strategy leads in GIRFEC, the Children's Act etc

(v) Employment Guide dissemination and second seminar

Summer 2014

(v) Working Group

Transition into employment is supported

(vi) Event to bring together all Autism Development Fund projects relating to transitions

Autumn 2014

(vi) Working Group/Autism Network Scotland

Good opportunity for exchanging knowledge, sharing good practice and disseminating the transitions good practice guides

(vii) Life in Colour Exhibition II

Autumn 2014

(vii) Working Group/Autism Network Scotland
